

Maura Allen

Associate
New York

Biography

Maura Allen focuses her practice on commercial litigation. She started at Hogan Lovells as a summer associate in 2018.

Prior to rejoining Hogan Lovells, Maura developed her writing and deepened her understanding of the litigation process as a law clerk to Judge Paul D. Borman of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. In law school, Maura honed her ability to both lead and collaborate as the Editor-in-Chief of the Environmental Law and Policy Annual Review and as a member of the articles committee of the Vanderbilt Law Review.

Maura has a strong commitment to pro bono and has worked on LGBTQ+ rights, immigration, and criminal justice matters.
