

Allison E. Hellreich

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Energy clients face many unique challenges, and look for guidance from a lawyer familiar with the regulatory landscape and various transactions. Allison Hellreich has represented natural gas pipeline companies, electric generators and marketers, nuclear actors, and other energy industry participants in both regulatory and transactional matters.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Allison represented both a natural gas company and an electric marketing company in litigated proceedings before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. She also helped bring appeals of Federal Energy Regulatory Commission decisions on behalf of energy industry clients in a U.S. Circuit Court.

Allison served as the Senior Projects Editor of the George Washington Journal of Energy and Environmental Law and as a legal intern in the Immediate Office of the General Counsel at the U.S. Department of Energy while attending The George Washington University Law School.
