

Jeangély Ampion-Liyono

Associate

Paris

Biography

Jeangély is a banking and finance lawyer in our Infrastructure, Energy, Resources and Projects Department. He assists commercial banks and development finance institutions, particularly in the area of project finance. Jeangély has also developed experiences in OHADA law

Representative experience

Advising international banks on restructuring the debt of a company operating a power plant in Senegal

Advising sponsors on the refinancing of four biomethane production units in France

Advising JP Morgan and UK Export Finance on the €1.9 billion financing of the construction and commissioning of the monorail tramway in Cairo, Egypt

Advising MUFG and UK Export Finance in connection with the financing of the construction and development by NMS Infrastructure Limited of six new hospitals in the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire

Latest thinking and events

- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises lenders on financing of MADIACOM's radio access network modernization and extension project
- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises Proparco and EAIF on the

Phone

+33153674883

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

jeangely.ampion-liyono@hoganlovells.com

Languages

French
English
Lingala

Education and admissions

Education

Certificat d'Aptitude à la Profession d'Avocat, École de Formation du Barreau (EFB), 2020

Arbitration and International Business Law - MACI (Master II), University of Versailles, 2014

Masters in Private International Law and International Business Law, University of Versailles, 2013

financing of Dakar's future electric BRT bus network

- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises Verkor on its record financing of more than €2 billion
- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises lenders on US$155m facility to finance a series of development projects in Djibouti Damerjog Industrial Development Free Trade Zone

Bar admissions and qualifications

Paris
