

Annabel Maltby

Counsel
London

Biography

For over 10 years Annabel has helped clients to resolve their complex international arbitration disputes. She works with clients from a range of industries, including life sciences and health care, energy, and financial services, to solve their disputes as painlessly as possible by providing pre-arbitration advice, assistance with mediation and settlement, or taking a case all the way to trial.

Annabel has steered clients from Europe, the Americas, Asia and Africa through joint-venture disputes, post M&A disputes, disputes arising out of complex financing transactions, license agreements, concession agreements and long-term supply agreements as well as general contractual disputes. Her experience encompasses disputes governed by foreign law, arbitrations conducted under the major institutional rules (ICC, LCIA), ad hoc arbitrations and arbitration-related court proceedings.

Named a Rising Star in International Arbitration in Legal 500 2021 and 2022, Annabel is passionate about utilising new technologies with global clients to help facilitate more efficient arbitral proceedings. She has higher rights of audience in the English courts and experience of conducting advocacy in international arbitration hearings.
