

Anti-boycott Compliance

Anti-boycott regulations often fall under the radar. Companies falling short of compliance risk penalties and tax drawbacks.

We know how to decipher the rules. We review and negotiate deal documents for boycott matters, while considering sensitivities in the Middle East and boycotting countries generally. We negotiate amendments to neutralize challenging boycott requests. We hone your compliance practices to ensure you properly review the necessary materials and submit reports to the government on time.

We help you comply with the fine print. From the U.S. Departments of Commerce and Treasury.

Anti-boycott matters need careful attention and experience. We give you confidence in your decisions.

Representative experience

Advise companies on the applicability of the EAR and IRS anti-boycott compliance provisions in their international business transactions.

Contacts

Anthony V. Capobianco,
Washington, D.C.

Ajay Kuntamukkala,
Washington, D.C.

Aleksandar Dukic,
Washington, D.C.

Practices

International Trade and Investment

Assist companies with determining reporting requirements and preparing reports to the government.

Assist with developing and implementing policies and procedures for complying with anti-boycott regulations.

Assist with internal reviews of suspected violations of the anti-boycott regulations.

Latest thinking and events

News

The Hogan Lovells National Security Podcast

Insights and Analysis

European Parliament Elections 2024: Explainer and Policy Takeaways

News

The Hogan Lovells National Security Podcast

News

U.S. Commerce Department issues antiboycott compliance advisory on Turkey

News

The Hogan Lovells National Security Podcast

News

U.S. Department of Commerce issues new resource to facilitate antiboycott compliance