

Anti-Corruption Compliance and Due Diligence

Hogan Lovells knows the FCPA and bribery and corruption laws around the world. We help you design intelligent and analytics-driven compliance programs that are practical and reduce your risk. We also help clients engaging in mergers and acquisitions to identify and mitigate potential exposure from past violations of applicable anti-corruption laws.

We have experience in the entire spectrum of anti-corruption compliance and transactional due diligence, from designing compliance programs, conducting risk-based diligence, performing effective internal investigations and fact-finding, to ensuring complete post-acquisition integration.

We offer pragmatic, business-savvy counsel. We appear regularly before the DOJ and SEC and are deeply conversant in their evolving expectations. Let our team help yours.

Representative experience

Conducted a worldwide distributor compliance review for a leading pharmaceutical manufacturer as part of post-acquisition integration, following its largest acquisition ever.

Conducted a nine-country compliance review for one of the world's leading gold mining companies.

Contacts

T. Clark Weymouth,
Washington, D.C.

Stephanie Yonekura,
Los Angeles

Peter S. Spivack,
Washington, D.C.

Lillian S. Hardy,
Washington, D.C.

Practices

Investigations, White
Collar, and Fraud

International Trade and Investment

Advised a major automaker on the FCPA analysis and remedial actions related to facilitating payments made by a potential target to officials in India.

Advised a major Russian consumer product company on the potential FCPA exposure in connection with its financing practices.

Developed global anti-bribery corruption training to tech company with focus on the United States, UK, Brazil, India, and China. Provided in-person training to employees from the C-suite to on-the-ground salespeople.

Advised a publicly traded global pharmaceutical company on the anti-corruption due diligence and remedial actions related to clinical trials in several African countries.

Latest thinking and events

Media Mention

Entain case illustrates online gaming growing along with enforcement

Anti-Corruption Report

Press releases

Hogan Lovells Global Bribery & Corruption Outlook 2024 predicts a year of shifting enforcement dynamics as elections take place across the world

Published Works

In the crosshairs or at a crossroads? Indonesia's anti-corruption inflection point

Anti-Corruption Report

Published Works

Australia Anti-Corruption Reforms Gain Traction

Anti-Corruption Report

Published Works

You've got mail... So what? Messaging issues for business in Southeast Asia

Anti-Corruption Report

Published Works

Conducting life sciences investigations in Vietnam