

Co-investments

Co-investments are an increasingly common feature of deals we work on. The lawyers at Hogan Lovells advise both limited partners and other co-investors on the structure and terms of co-investment vehicles for fund programs.

We also regularly advise funds and family offices on co-investments in a variety of leading private equity-backed portfolio companies and assist private equity sponsors on the syndication of investment interests. Co-investors we have advised include sovereign wealth funds, multistrategy asset managers, pension funds, other private equity sponsors, limited partners, and family wealth funds. Our global team can counsel on your co-investments across the globe.
