

Corporate Group Structures

Aligning legal structure with business need, good corporate governance, regulation, and tax regimes.

We help businesses to manage risk, ensure compliance, and maximize financial efficiency. Strategic guidance and implementation.

Establishing a new presence. Integrating an acquisition. Implementing regulatory ring fencing. Intracompany trading to reflect transfer pricing.

The right forms of entity. Balance sheet-driven reorganizations. International or group wide procurement, sales, or services structures.

Combining our tax, corporate, commercial, regulatory, and HR experience — we can help you to decide what should go where and put it there
