

Customs and Import Compliance

You can't cut corners on customs and import compliance issues. Evolving, global regulations and penalties require appropriate compliance policies and procedures.

We help sophisticated clients on complex import compliance matters involving the U.S., EU, Latin America, and Asia.

You can't cut corners on customs and import compliance issues. Evolving, global regulations and penalties require appropriate compliance policies and procedures.

We help sophisticated clients on complex import compliance matters involving the U.S., EU, Latin America, and Asia.

We hone your compliance plan. Handle classification, country of origin, value, tariff, trade programs, penalties, and seizures. We vigorously defend you before U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and customs agencies worldwide.

Our strategic advice on sourcing, duty saving, and deferrals uncovers opportunities and reduces risk exposure.

We help industries including food, agriculture, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, textiles, apparel, steel, and chemical.

Customs require legislative, policy, and technical know-

Contacts

Jonathan T. Stoel,
Washington, D.C.

Craig A. Lewis,
Washington, D.C.

Warren H. Maruyama,
Washington, D.C.

Practices

International Trade
Commission Section
337

International Trade and Investment

how. Experience you only find with us.

Representative experience

Advise Urenco, the sole uranium enricher in the U.S., on U.S. import quotas applied to uranium from Russia.

Advise Invista's appeal in the Court of International to oppose a ruling by U.S. Customs.

Assist a major medical device company in successfully preparing and defending Customs Prior Disclosure.

Helping major agricultural importer and exporter with its import/export operations and compliance with U.S. customs law.

Secured a refund to Armstrong World Industries for wrongly paid customs duties.

Assist Nestle Waters North America to develop and maintain customs compliance procedures pertaining to the company's imports of certain bottled-water products.

Latest thinking and events

Press releases

UK election results – Implications for International Trade and Investment

News

Giving deforestation the ax – The proposed regulation on deforestation-free products