

Lloyd's Market

The Lloyd's market has its own specific legal and regulatory requirements that must be followed by participants and understood by their shareholders, banks, and others who finance them.

We can advise you on the different ways of entering the Lloyd's market, capitalizing and financing for participants, compliance, dispute resolution, mergers and acquisitions, and strategies for exiting the market. Whether you are new to the market or an existing participant we can help you navigate the unique regulatory environment of the Lloyd's market.

Representative experience

Advised Enstar on the acquisition of the Atrium Group.

Advised Hamilton on its acquisition of the Lloyd's business Sportscover.

Advised ING, Commerzbank, and a major financial institution on a fund at Lloyd's facility made available to members of Lloyd's in the Canopus group.

Advised Qatar Insurance on its £185.8m acquisition of Antares Holdings.

Contacts

Tim Goggin,
London
