

Stipe Bojanic

Counsel

Frankfurt

Biography

Stipe Bojanic focuses on the financing of complex transactions in the infrastructure, renewables and real estate. He advises lenders, sponsors, borrowers and investors on a wide range of international and domestic transactions in these sectors.

His special expertise comprises all aspects of real estate finance transactions, including mortgage loans, loans to be refinanced by German covered bonds (Pfandbriefe), senior and mezzanine loans, real estate development finance, real estate structured finance as well as portfolio deals, and loan sales (especially, non-performing loans).

With many years of experience in managing finance transactions, he is the right person with the necessary project management and negotiation skills to bring your financing transactions successfully to financial close.
