

Carolyn (Carrie) A. DeLone

Partner

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Clients look to Carrie DeLone for guidance in areas of complex civil litigation matters, with a particular focus on class actions. As a partner in our Washington, D.C. litigation practice, Carrie's litigation experience includes representing Fortune 500 clients across major industries, including health insurers, pharmaceutical companies, and financial institutions.

Her cases have involved a variety of areas of substantive law, including antitrust, fiduciary duty, Telephone Consumer Protection Act, False Claims Act, tax litigation, and contract claims, among others. She has considerable experience at all stages of a class action, including motions to dismiss, summary judgment motions, motions to certify and decertify a class, expert motions, pre-trial motions, and class action settlements.

Carrie also contributes to the firm's pro bono practice, advising clients on immigration matters, including representing minors in obtaining legal permanent residency and mentoring high school students on the law and their rights through Thurgood Marshall Academy's Law Days and Street Law's Corporate Legal Diversity Pipeline Program.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Carrie served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Reed C. O'Connor of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas. While in law school, she was an articles editor for Georgetown University Law Center's American Criminal Law Review, a member of the moot court

Phone

+1 202 637 4860

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

carrie.delone@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Commercial Litigation

Litigation Services

Industries

Financial Institutions

Insurance

Life Sciences and Health Care

Technology and Telecoms

Areas of focus

Class Actions and Group Litigation

False Claims Act and Qui Tam

Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology

team, and a co-chair of Home Court, an annual charity basketball game between members of Congress and Georgetown Law faculty to benefit the Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless. Prior to law school, she served as nominations clerk for the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee.

Representative experience

Representation of a leading global pharmaceutical company in defense of government investigations and multidistrict class-action litigation.

Representation of pharmaceutical manufacturer in complete dismissal of qui tam alleging off-label promotion and violations of the Anti-Kickback Statute.

Won nine summary judgment motions and complete dismissal of qui tam alleging off-label promotion and violations of the Anti-Kickback Statute against a pharmaceutical manufacturer.

Representation of health insurers in multidistrict class-action litigation by subscribers and providers challenging the Blue Cross Blue Shield system.

Representation of a major health insurer in the defense of class actions arising out of the company's IPO and related transactions.

Representation of a Fortune 20 company to defend against claims brought under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Events
 - Speaking of Sustainability: How to Spot and Mitigate Risk in a Fraught Landscape
- Hogan Lovells Events
 - HL Women Conference 2024
- News
 - New amendments to Florida Telephone Solicitation Act likely to curtail autodialer litigation

State Attorneys General

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, cum laude, 2010

B.A., University of Pennsylvania, magna cum laude, 2005

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

Pennsylvania

Court admissions

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas

- Hogan Lovells Events
 - Defending corporate responsibility: understanding the growing ESG class action risk
- Webinar
 - SCOTUS provides TCPA certainty. What does it mean for you?