

Fabien Charissoux

Senior Associate

Paris

Biography

As part of the Corporate Commercial practice, Fabien Charissoux focuses on regulatory, commercial, and contractual work. He has a particular experience in the life sciences sector and advises both French and international clients by providing them with regulatory advice or by assisting them in the negotiation and setting-up of contractual schemes. Fabien has a specific knowledge in digital health and assists clients in the setting-up of their projects involving a software, mobile app and/or website.

Fabien has also in-house experiences. He has been seconded at a world-leading chemicals group, where he worked on a variety of day-to-day commercial law matters, as well as complex agreements including general terms and conditions, supply and distribution agreements.

Fabien holds a Ph.D. in law and two post-graduate degrees in pharmaceutical law and in international business law. Fabien wrote his Ph.D. thesis on the application of competition law to the pharmaceutical market, at both French and European levels.

Fabien joined Hogan Lovells in September 2015, after having been an intern since March 2015.
