

Dr. Christine Schmid, LL.M. (Berkeley)

Senior Associate
Munich

Biography

Christine Schmid focuses on commercial and corporate litigation. She offers advice to national and international clients in complex disputes in pre-litigation scenarios and in court. Her practice focuses on litigation in supply chains disputes.

Christine studied law at the universities of Passau and Berkeley. She received her doctoral degree from the University of Passau with a thesis on the liability of managers in corporate insolvencies. She also obtained a master's degree from the University of California, Berkeley with focus on business law. Before qualifying as a lawyer in 2020, Christine completed her legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Munich. During this time, she worked for a US law firm and a major German law firm in Munich.
