

Corrado Fiscale

Partner
Milan

Biography

Partner in the Corporate & Finance and Debt Capital Markets Department of the Milan office of Hogan Lovells with extensive experience in banking and finance transactions.

Since 1996, Corrado has developed his knowledge and skills in advising lenders, borrowers, arrangers, managers, underwriters, issuers, originators, representatives of the note holders and swap counter parties in connection with a wide range of banking and finance deals, involving various asset classes and financial structures. Corrado qualified as a lawyer in Italy and has extensive experience in banking and finance, with a focus on structured finance transactions.

Corrado Fiscale is consistently highly ranked in leading legal guides such as Legal 500 and Chambers. Sources say he has 'deep knowledge of financial legal issues' and is 'ranked as a leading individual for Capital Markets in Italy'.

Corrado joined Hogan Lovells in July 2009, after having spent eight years in the Milan and London offices of a competitor law firm and five years in the Milan office of another competitor law firm. Corrado has been admitted to the Milan BAR.
