

Amy Crowe

Associate
Singapore

Biography

Amy Crowe is part of the business restructuring and insolvency team. She has a wide-ranging practice advising on all aspects of cross-border consensual and non-consensual restructurings and formal insolvency processes.

Amy represents debt funds on their distressed investing, bank creditors, and insolvency practitioners.

Representative experience

Acting for administrators on the €385m restructuring of the foreign exchange firm Travelex.

Advising a debt fund on the refinancing of Fortenova group's €1.2bn existing facilities via a secured private note issuance.

Advising lenders in relation to the successful restructuring of the Interserve Group.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - "Root-and-branch attack" successfully defended: issues from the Adler sanction decision examined
- News
 - English court sanctions contested restructuring plan for the Adler Group
- News
 - Parallel lines – Hong Kong Airlines undergoes English and Hong Kong restructuring

Phone

+65 8468 8605

Fax

+65 6538 7077

Email

amy.crowe@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Practices

Restructuring and Special Situations

Education and admissions

Education

LPC, BPP University, 2018

GDL, BPP University, 2017

BA History and Politics, University of Warwick, 2016

Bar admissions and qualifications

Solicitor, England and Wales

Court admissions

England and Wales
