

Hélène De Nazelle

Senior Associate

Paris

Biography

Hélène de Nazelle has in-depth knowledge on French employment law, acting on day-to-day employment matters for companies and international groups present in France.

She focuses on individual employment law matters, from the recruitment of employees to their termination, including post-termination issues.

She also concentrates on collective employment law matters, such as the organization of staff representative elections, relations with works councils and unions and negotiation of collective bargaining agreements.

Hélène also developed a focus in employment litigation (both collective and individual cases).

Representative experience

Advising a bank in the reorganization of its activity, including the implementation of a social plan.

Latest thinking and events

- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises Myriad Genetics on reorganization of international business operations and sale of EndoPredict business
- News
 - Presumption of resignation for abandonment of position: clarification by decree and the Ministry of Labor

Phone

+33 1 53 67 47 47

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

helene.denazelle@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Practices

Employment

Industries

Consumer
Financial Institutions
Life Sciences and Health Care

Areas of focus

Labor and Employment Matters
in Education Institutions

- News
 - Our Employment Law team analyses three decisions of the French Supreme Court.
- News
 - Our Employment Law team reviews three rulings of the French Court of Cassation
- Webinar
 - Hogan Lovells Remote Work Webinar: Working around the Globe

Education and admissions

Education

Master 2 Professionel, Droit et Pratique des Relations de Travail, Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, 2012

LL.M. in Labour Law, King's College London, 2011

LL.M. Europäischer Jurist, Privatrecht - Arbeitsrecht, Humboldt University of Berlin, 2010

Bar admissions and qualifications

Paris
