

Dorota Walerjan

Counsel

Warsaw

Biography

Anyone can offer you solutions, but not many can offer you innovative optimisation solutions and this is what Dorota's clients' often need. Her advice is sought by leading companies in the insurance and banking sector, for which she has worked out and implemented, in cooperation with other professionals, a variety of innovative optimisation solutions. Dorota is a licensed tax advisor. Before joining us in 2007, she worked as a Director at a large professional services firm, heading the FMCG practice. Although Dorota continues to provide advice to the consumption sector, she has also recognised the new needs of the market and has engaged in providing specialised advice to the insurance and banking sector, as well as infrastructure investments. In this respect, she supports clients in planning, implementing, and financing projects.

She co-designs legal schemes for intended undertakings and considers their necessary administrative and financial optimisation. She supports clients in their contacts with the tax authorities, representing them at all stages of proceedings, and in disputes in front of administrative courts. Owing to her economic background, the solutions proposed by Dorota are thorough and comprehensive; an example of her success was the implementation of the first and largest public-private partnership project in Poland.

Dorota has conducted over one hundred training sessions in legal and tax matters. She is the author of several publications, including books on the legal and
