

Edward (Ned) Sinclair Purdon

Partner

Washington, D.C.

New York

Biography

With his wealth of knowledge and experience in a broad range of commercial financing matters, Edward "Ned" Purdon guides lender, private equity, and corporate clients alike through the challenges of a deal. Whether it's a domestic or cross-border transaction, Ned knows how to structure, negotiate, and execute secured and unsecured financings and deliver results that exceed his clients' goals.

Ned represents clients in syndicated loans for investment grade and non-investment grade issuers, strategic and middle-market acquisition financings, asset-based lending transactions, mezzanine financings, letters of credit, intercreditor arrangements, and multicurrency facilities. He works with clients from a variety of industries, including financial institutions and private credit, private equity, energy, agriculture, health care and life sciences, and real estate investment trusts (REITs), as well as aerospace and defense, entertainment, manufacturing, retail, and telecoms.

Prior to joining our legal practice, Ned was an associate in the New York office of an international law firm, where he represented Wall Street financial institutions in structured finance and other corporate matters.
