

Sophia Fang

Associate

Houston

Biography

Sophia Fang takes a holistic approach to the practice of commercial litigation. She is committed to helping clients find efficient and winning solutions to their problems.

Sophia has worked on an array of commercial litigation and international arbitration matters. She is passionate about pro bono causes, particularly those related to immigration and domestic abuse.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Sophia worked as an EMT at UCLA's Ronald Reagan Medical Center. In law school, Sophia served as a board member for her school's LGBTQ+ affinity group. Before moving to Houston, Sophia divided her time between Beijing, Los Angeles, and Seattle.
