

Peter FitzGerald

Counsel
London

Biography

Peter FitzGerald is an experienced lawyer specialising in complex commercial litigation, who previously practised at the Independent Bar. Having worked on a wide variety of high-profile cases including allegations of serious fraud and corruption, he is able to bring a breadth of experience to the most challenging disputes.

Representative experience

Representing BAT in a range of matters including contested indemnification liabilities and English High Court proceedings re the recovery of around US$1bn dividends.

Representing a senior British banking executive charged by the SFO and investigated by the FCA in relation to capital raisings conducted during the 2008 financial crisis.*

Representing a major European oil and gas company and its CEO re accusations that they had bribed the Prime Minister of a European state in order to procure control of another company.*

Acting for a British bank in the LIBOR and FX investigations.*

Acting for the international human rights campaigner Bill Browder re the global 'Justice for Sergei Magnitsky' campaign and repeated attacks on him by the Russian Government.*

Phone

+44 20 7296 5234

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

peter.fitzgerald@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Education and admissions

Education

LLB (Hons) Law, College of Law,
2007

M.A. Classics, Trinity College,
Cambridge, 2005

Memberships

South Eastern Circuit

London Solicitors Litigation
Association

London Irish Lawyers Association

Acting for an individual being prosecuted for fraud in one of the extremely rare criminal cases brought by the Holy See.*

*Matter handled prior to joining Hogan Lovells.

Bar admissions and qualifications

Barrister, England and Wales
