

Andrea Foglia

Senior Associate

Rome

Biography

Since 2014, Andrea has provided legal assistance to domestic and international clients in all phases of cross-border transactions, from due diligence to completion, and beyond, dealing also with post-completion integration, reorganizations and the handling of claims arising from the deal implementation. Andrea has also gained a solid experience in supporting clients through corporate governance matters, preparing corporate compliance structures and in establishing their business operations in Italy.

Whenever the structure of the transaction or the handling of corporate governance matters presents intricate legal problems, clients can always count on Andrea's understanding of the complex civil and commercial legal issues involved, his strong research skills and his capacity for lateral thinking, which help him to swiftly identify innovative solutions.

Having developed a solid background in a broad range of transactional and corporate topics, Andrea has a recognized ability to provide the client with a comprehensive support aimed to achieve the client's goals navigating the complexities of the Italian corporate and commercial legal system.

Andrea has experience advising clients operating in several industries, in particular in the sectors of energy and pharmaceutical and life sciences. Andrea was admitted in 2016 as an Italian lawyer (Avvocato) and as a member of the Bar association of Rome.
