

Lyric Galvin

Associate

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Lyric Galvin advises clients on a range of international trade-related matters. Lyric helps clients navigate trade litigation, economic sanctions, export controls, foreign investment reviews, and other trade-related issues.

Lyric represents companies in international trade administrative proceedings before the U.S. Department of Commerce and U.S. International Trade Commission.

She also helps clients comply with international trade laws, including the Export Administration Regulations, the sanctions regulations administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, and matters involving the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Lyric interned at the Court of International Trade and the U.S. International Trade Commission. Lyric graduated magna cum laude from the Georgetown University Law Center, where she was also a member of the Georgetown Global Law Scholars program and the Georgetown Journal of International Law.
