Associate

Tokyo

Biography

As an associate in our Corporate group, Reina Goto is involved in all stages of M&A transactions from drafting and reviewing definitive and related agreements, to FOREX notification and execution report filings, and commercial registration applications, both pre- and post-closing.

She has experience assisting in negotiating post-closing employment transfer and building lease agreements, as well as preparing internal rules.

In addition to her significant experience in Japan, Reina's practice also includes cross-border matters spanning the United States, South America, Europe, and Asia-Pacific.

Reina also has experience in Japanese antitrust law, Japanese copyright law, international commercial arbitration, pharmaceutical regulations, procedures regarding managing foreign subsidiaries, employment law, and restructuring and insolvency issues. She advises clients on litigation in Japan.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Reina was in-house counsel at a Japanese entertainment software company and a Japanese life sciences-related company, and supported numerous transactions, both domestic and international.
