

Conner Griffith

Senior Associate

San Francisco

Biography

Conner Griffith represents clients with a focus on technology and IP-related transactions. Conner supports clients on strategic and commercial transactions related to the joint-development, licensing, acquisition, sale, use, and protection of IP.

Prior to joining the firm, Conner worked in the San Francisco office of another global law firm, advising on corporate matters and complex commercial transactions. Conner's experience allows him to effectively protect vital ideas and innovations throughout the lifecycle of a transaction.

During law school, he spent his first summer with the LA District Attorney's office in the Public Integrity Division, and the following semester he interned at the Securities and Exchange Commission in the Division of Enforcement.
