

John Hamilton

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

John Hamilton guides companies through the merger clearance process and provides counseling on a range of antitrust issues.

John's practice spans all phases of the merger clearance process. He advises companies regarding compliance with the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and represents clients in merger investigations before federal and state antitrust agencies. John has also represented clients in successful merger trials in federal court.

Outside of mergers, John advises clients on issues such as strategic collaborations, pricing, and information sharing. He has represented clients in conduct investigations and civil litigation. John works with clients in a variety of industries, including health care and life sciences, technology, defense, and industrials.

While at Duke University School of Law, John was an editor for the Duke Law Journal. Prior to law school, John worked as an accountant for a leading health care services company.

Representative experience

Represented UnitedHealth Group in DOJ investigation and lawsuit seeking to block acquisition of Change Healthcare.

Represented Albert Einstein Healthcare Network in FTC lawsuit seeking to block merger with Thomas Jefferson University.

Phone

+1 202 804 7898

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

john.hamilton@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Antitrust and Competition

---

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care
Manufacturing and Industrials
Aerospace and Defense
Technology and Telecoms

---

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Duke University School of Law,
cum laude, 2019

B.S., University of Tennessee,
summa cum laude, 2012

---

Latest thinking and events

- News
  - New HSR and interlocking directorate thresholds announced for 2024
- News
  - US antitrust agencies propose sweeping and burdensome changes to HSR Form
- News
  - New HSR and interlocking directorate thresholds announced for 2023
- News
  - FTC proposes rule to ban nearly all employee non-compete agreements
- Insights and Analysis
  - New law increases HSR filing fees and adds foreign subsidy disclosure obligation to HSR rules
- Press releases
  - Hogan Lovells notches antitrust trial win, helps defeat DOJ challenge to UnitedHealth–Change Healthcare merger

Memberships

Member, Antitrust Section,
American Bar Association

---

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

---