

Hanna Herzog

Senior Associate

Munich

Biography

Hanna Herzog offers legal advice regarding all aspects of German and European competition law.

Hanna advises national and international clients in complex cartel investigations before national competition authorities and the European Commission. In addition, she represents clients in internal investigations, cartel damage litigation and advises on distribution related competition law issues and merger control proceedings.

Hanna studied law at the University of Passau and at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, Spain. During her legal traineeship at the Higher Regional Court of Munich she worked, inter alia, for an international law firm in Munich, an international company and the German Embassy in Bogotá, Colombia.
