

Hannah Kaye

Counsel

London

Biography

Hannah advises on a range of investment funds matters across a diverse client base, working with supranational development finance institutions, pension schemes, investment banks and asset managers, amongst others.

With a focus on private funds, she has, over her time in the Investment Funds team, worked both on the launch of funds as well providing carefully-tailored advice to her investor clients, in each case across a broad spectrum of asset classes. In recent years she has expanded her practice to include co-investments and secondaries work alongside developing her interest in the impact space.
