

John Harrison

Associate
New York

Biography

John Harrison advises corporations, investment entities, and financial institutions on complex debt financing transactions with a special emphasis on assisting private capital funds. He works with his clients to provide counsel on a variety of secured and unsecured finance transactions, including acquisition financings and inventory trade financings.

John represents domestic and international clients in various sectors, including private capital, healthcare, and real estate. In addition to bank and private capital financings, he also has experience working on capital markets transactions and public company advisory matters.

While pursuing a law degree, John worked both as a legal intern for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and as a judicial intern for the Commercial Division of the New York State Supreme Court for New York County (Manhattan). Prior to his legal career, John worked as the Communications Director for a Congressional campaign and also as a Staff Associate for a crisis management public relations firm.
