

Madelyn Healy

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Madelyn Healy advises the sponsors of, and investors in, a wide range of private investment funds, including private equity, mezzanine, real estate, venture capital, hedge funds, and small business investment companies (SBICs). She helps these clients with fund formation, maintenance, and investment matters.

Madelyn guides clients through all aspects of fund formation, administration, and regulatory compliance, including structuring, governance, and investor relations. Madelyn also advises her private clients on regulatory issues relating to Small Business Investment Act of 1958, the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

While in law school, Madelyn was the Production Editor of the Virginia Tax Review. She also gained valuable experience as a summer associate at Hogan Lovells.
