

Madelyn Healy Joseph

Counsel

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Madelyn Healy Joseph advises the sponsors of, and investors in, a wide range of private investment funds, including private equity, credit, real estate, venture capital, hedge funds, and small business investment companies (SBICs). Her experience includes complex parallel fund, feeder fund, joint venture, co-investment and continuation fund structures. Madelyn's diverse industry experience includes technology, healthcare, real estate and communications.

Madelyn takes a hands-on approach to working with clients. She makes it a priority to learn about their business, challenges and objectives and uses that knowledge to effectively guide them through all aspects of fund formation, administration, and regulatory compliance, including structuring, governance, and investor relations. Following the formation of a fund, Madelyn assists clients with ongoing management and investment matters.

Madelyn also advises her private fund clients on regulatory issues relating to the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.
