

Chalid Heyder

Office Managing Partner
Jakarta

Biography

As one of the top litigation and arbitration lawyers in Indonesia, Chalid Heyder has more than 20 years' experience in dispute resolution in Indonesia. Chalid is qualified in Indonesia and concentrates on arbitration, civil disputes, bankruptcy and suspension of payments. Chalid has extensive experience in business competition, contentious employment issues and internal investigations, as well as criminal and corruption matters.

Chalid has represented and advised both domestic and international clients from a number of different industries. He has appeared as an advocate before BANI arbitration and as Indonesian counsel for a number of clients in the BANI Arbitration Center (Indonesia), Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) and the International Court of Arbitration (ICC).

Under Chalid's leadership, Hogan Lovells DNFP has become the "go to" firm for anti-bribery and corruption, and corporate investigations. This is acknowledged by the Corruption Eradication Commission (Komisi Pemberantasan Korupsi/KPK), as Hogan Lovells DNFP was the first law firm invited to contribute to the discussions to establish integrity officer guidelines for the prevention of bribery and corruption in the private sector.
