

Alexander J. Hoffarth

Associate

Washington, D.C.

Biography

With a background focused on the intersection of law, government, and business, Alexander Hoffarth uses an interdisciplinary approach when advising clients spanning the entire business life cycle. Alexander identifies solutions that best align with his clients' long-term strategy on matters including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and public and private securities offerings.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Alexander clerked for the Honorable Diane S. Sykes of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. He received his J.D. and M.B.A. from the University of Virginia, where he was a member of the Virginia Law Review editorial board.

Before law school, Alexander worked as an equity research assistant for an asset management firm in Rochester, NY, where he provided political and macroeconomic analysis for the firm's non-U.S. equity portfolio. He earned his B.A. in Political Science from Boston College.

Representative experience

Dell Technologies Inc. on the sale of the global RSA business to a consortium led by Symphony Technology Group, Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan Board, and AlpInvest Partners for US$2.075bn.
