

David Horan

Senior Associate

London

Biography

David Horan is a senior associate in our London office. David has a broad range of commercial real estate experience, with a focus on investment transactions and complex development structures across a range of different asset classes, including offices, residential, student accommodation, retail and mix use schemes.

David is a key contact for Argent Related, British Land and the London Legacy Development Corporation. He is also the principal contact for retailer Russell & Bromley, which is one of the firm's longest standing clients.

Representative experience

Advising Argent Related on the regeneration scheme at Brent Cross Town, including infrastructure arrangements and negotiations to bring forward the first development plot.

Acting for British Land on the proposed redevelopment of a substantial London office tower.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - UK landmark reforms in the private rented sector
- News
 - Residential property reform by UK government: Goodbye to ground rents
- Hogan Lovells Publications

Phone

+44 20 7296 5676

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

david.horan@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Real Estate

Industries

Real Estate

- The most wonderful time of the year? Five things retailers need to consider this holiday season
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Government to ban leasehold houses and set ground rents at zero Keeping It Real Estate
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Government proposes to abolish residential ground rents Keeping It Real Estate
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Nationwide announces position on onerous ground rents Keeping It Real Estate