

Thomas Hunt

Senior Associate
Northern Virginia

Biography

With a focus on complex commercial litigation involving government contracts and shareholder litigation, Tom Hunt works with clients to find the most efficient and effective solutions to clients' disputes so they can get back to the business of their business. Tom advises clients in the full spectrum of dispute resolution options, from litigation to arbitration and mediation.

His work includes high-profile disputes involving a range of issues, including procurement litigation and contract disputes involving state and federal agencies, with experience representing both the government and contractors. Tom also defends public companies and their officers and directors in shareholder, antitrust, and securities litigation, and represents public and private entities and individuals in corporate, LLC, and partnership control disputes.

While in law school, Tom served as the Executive Editor of the George Mason Law Review, in addition to serving on the Moot Court Board and the Jessup Moot Court Team. Tom also was selected to participate in the Mason Law Supreme Court Clinic, where he drafted amicus curiae briefs for the United States Supreme Court, and assisted in the preparation of oral arguments representing the state of North Dakota in Birchfield v. North Dakota. Before joining Hogan Lovells, Tom served in the chambers of the Honorable Judge Susan G. Braden of the United States Court of Federal Claims.

Prior to law school, Tom served 13 years in the United

Phone

+1 703 610 6120

Fax

+1 703 610 6200

Email

thomas.hunt@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Aviation

Corporate Governance and Public
Company Representation

REITs

Uncrewed Aircraft Systems

Transportation

Commercial Litigation

Banking and Finance Litigation

Industries

Aerospace and Defense

Automotive and Mobility

Financial Institutions

Real Estate

States Air Force as a combat fighter pilot in the F-15C, operating out of Japan, the United Kingdom, and locations in Southwest Asia. Tom is a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy and also has a M.S. in political science.

Representative experience

Won a US$385m jury trial for Orbital ATK over a joint venture to market Orbital ATK's mission extension vehicle, a spacecraft meant to extend the lives of geostationary satellites.

Advised the Virginia Information Technologies Agency in a dispute regarding the wind-up of their US$2.6bn IT services government contract.

Won a substantially favorable outcome for Nuance Communications in a complex contract and intellectual property dispute in the Eastern District of Virginia.

Represented Relativity Capital on successful resolution of commercial litigation arising out of its sale of a military-grade night-vision equipment manufacturer.

Latest thinking and events

- Insights and Analysis
 - Highlights with Hogan Lovells: Bid Protest Digest | Volume VI
- Insights and Analysis
 - Highlights with Hogan Lovells: Bid Protest Digest | Volume VI
- News
 - Highlights with Hogan Lovells: Bid Protest Digest | Volume V
- News
 - Highlights with Hogan Lovells: Bid Protest Digest | Volume IV
- News
 - Highlights with Hogan Lovells: Bid Protest Digest | Volume III
- News

Areas of focus

Aviation Litigation

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., George Mason University
School of Law, 2016

M.S., Troy University, 2010

B.S., United States Air Force
Academy, 2000

Bar admissions and qualifications

Virginia

Court admissions

U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Virginia

■ Highlights with Hogan Lovells: Bid Protest Digest |
Volume II