

Jonas Poell

Senior Associate
Munich

Biography

Jonas Poell focuses his practice on commercial and investment treaty arbitration.

He has experience in international arbitrations under various rules, including the ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC, LCIA, and DIS Rules. He has further represented clients before EU and national courts in relation to arbitration and investment protection and has experience in business and human rights.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Jonas practised for several years at international law firms in Paris, Brussels, and Washington D.C., focusing on international arbitration, public international law and EU law. His experience further includes EU competition and State aid law.

He is a lecturer at the University of Munich, where he teaches public international law. Jonas has further worked on several pro bono projects for human rights organisations and in the area of public international law.

Representative experience

Representing Irish investors in an ICSID arbitration against the Federal Republic of Germany under the Energy Charter Treaty.

Advising a state-owned entity of an Eastern European state on potential investment arbitration claims relating to the development of a commercial centre.

Phone

+49 89 290 12 0

Fax

+49 89 290 12 222

Email

jonas.poell@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
German
Spanish
French

Practices

International Arbitration
International Trade and Investment
Business and Human Rights

Industries

Aerospace and Defense
Energy and Natural Resources
Life Sciences and Health Care

Representing a multinational company in an LCIA arbitration in relation to mining rights.

Representing a European company in an ICC arbitration against its U.S. supplier in relation to the delivery of defective components.

Representing a multinational company in an ICC arbitration against its U.S. supplier in relation to claims under a strategic supplier agreement.

Representing clients in anti-arbitration proceedings under Section 1032(2) of the German Code of Civil Procedure.

Representing investors in an ICSID arbitration and before the General Court of the EU with regard to investments in a European State.*

Representing an Eastern European state in an UNCITRAL arbitration against a state-owned gas company.*

Representing a European life sciences company in a DIS arbitration under a Share Purchase Agreement.*

Representing a group of multinational companies with regard to the enforcement and recognition of arbitral awards against an Eastern European State in Germany.*

Advising a European defense company in a dispute against a European State in relation to EU law aspects of defense procurement.*

Advising several clients in relation to antitrust investigations by the European Commission, EU merger control and general EU law, including compliance and competition audits.*

Advising clients on all aspects of EU State aid control.*

*Matter handled prior to joining Hogan Lovells.

Latest thinking and events

■ News

- German court exercises universal jurisdiction: Implications for corporate criminal liability

■ News

Areas of focus

Public International Law

Education and admissions

Education

Dr. iur., LMU Munich (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München), 2016

Second State Exam in Law, Higher Regional Court of Hamburg, 2012

LL.M., University of Cambridge, 2010

First State Exam in Law, University of Münster, 2008

- COVID-19: will State measures give rise to a new set of investment claims?