

Dr. Katlen Blöcker

Partner
Frankfurt

Biography

Katlen Blöcker is a well-established and experienced banking and finance lawyer focusing on finance transactions. Her areas of expertise include corporate loans, acquisition finance, real estate finance, export finance and financial restructurings. She has been advising her clients – banks, debt funds, private equity houses, corporates, insurance companies and investors – on a significant number of outstanding finance transactions. Her international work experience and multi-jurisdictional transactions make her a frequently asked lawyer for cross-border financings.

Katlen's pragmatic approach, her economic view, her deep legal skills and her "can-do attitude" have won her the recognition of clients and competitors alike – she is listed as a "best lawyer" and "recommended lawyer" for banking and finance in the leading directories.

In addition to heading our German banking practice, Katlen is a regular speaker at industry events and has published a number of articles relating to finance transactions and financial restructurings. She is an active member of the community and also a member of the HVB women's council.

Representative experience

Advising CTDI GmbH on its first syndicated financing arranged by a consortium of banks, namely Commerzbank, Deutsche Postbank, HSBC and IKB.
