

Benjamin Kim

Associate

Northern Virginia

Biography

Benjamin Kim advises clients on intellectual property, media, and technology issues. His work covers many industries including e-commerce, transportation, entertainment, and financial services.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Benjamin externed at the Eastern District of Virginia and the Arizona Attorney General's Office. During law school he also served as the Executive Articles Editor for the William & Mary Business Law Review.

Benjamin is involved in various pro bono matters including representing children as guardian ad litem in highly contentious custody disputes and advising a non-profit organization with intellectual property issues.

Latest thinking and events

- Press releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises Daiichi Sankyo on global multi-ADC collaboration

Phone

+1 703 610 6100

Fax

+1 703 610 6200

Email

benjamin.kim@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Practices

Commercial

Intellectual Property

IP and Technology Transactions

Industries

Consumer

Life Sciences and Health Care

Sports, Media and Entertainment

Transportation and Logistics

Areas of focus

Licensing and Commercial Transactions

IP Rights in Transactions

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., William & Mary Law School, cum laude, 2021

B.A., Arizona State University, 2015

Bar admissions and qualifications

Virginia
