

Kimberly Makino

Associate
Hamburg

Biography

Kimberly Makino advises national and international companies on all aspects of individual and collective employment law.

Kimberly studied law at the Westfälische Wilhelms-University in Münster, specializing in labor and social law. As a result of her early enthusiasm for employment law, she initially worked as a research assistant in a law firm specialized in employment law after completing her studies. She completed her legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Celle, among others, in our employment law practice group in Hamburg as well as in another international corporate law firm.
