

Gil McDonald

Associate

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Gil McDonald focuses on corporate, securities, and general business law. His clients include large corporations engaged in complex transactions, as well as entrepreneurs navigating the challenges of launching and growing their business.

In his practice, Gil advises clients on issues regarding securities filings, stock exchange requirements, M&A transactions, and corporate governance matters.

During law school, Gil worked as an intern in the post-presidency office of Barack Obama and as an honors intern at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Gil also served as a notes editor of The George Washington University Law Review. He completed his school's pro bono service recognition and currently maintains an active pro bono practice.

Representative experience

Represented Colgate-Palmolive Company in its €1bn bond offering.

Advised a Washington, D.C.-based biotech social enterprise on organizational and corporate governance matters.

Represented Anthem, Inc. in its US$2.5 billion bond offering.

Advised a nonprofit organization on affiliation agreements effecting regional expansion.

Phone

+1 202 637 6516

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

gil.mcdonald@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Capital Markets

Joint Ventures

Mergers and Acquisitions

Securities and Public Company
Advisory

Corporate Governance and Public
Company Representation

Industries

Sports, Media and Entertainment

Education and admissions

Education

Latest thinking and events

■ Press Releases

- Hogan Lovells advises Industrial Property Trust in US$3.99 billion sale to Prologis

J.D., The George Washington University Law School, with honors, 2018

B.A., Indiana University, with distinction, 2012

Memberships

Member, American Bar Association

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia
