

Margot Mimoun

Senior Associate

Paris

Biography

Margot Mimoun joined Hogan Lovells in March 2017. She focuses her practice on commercial, contractual and product liability litigation. She also regularly assists clients facing both pre-litigation and litigation claims arising in industries such as technology, media, telecoms and e-commerce. She has extensive experience in large-scale litigation.

Representative experience

Advising internet companies on draft French or European pieces of legislation notably by analyzing the impact of these pieces of legislation on their business model

Assisting high tech companies concerning the implementation of new French laws related to new obligations imposed on platform operators

Representing a US entity in several cases against French individuals involving its quality of hosting provider

Latest thinking and events

- Insights and Analysis
 - Key takeaways from our two-part webinar "DSA Countdown"
- Webinar
 - DSA Countdown I Part 2 – Local Insights & Strategies

Phone

+33 1 53 67 47 47

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

margot.mimoun@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Practices

Litigation Services
Products Law

Industries

Consumer
Manufacturing and Industrials
Technology and Telecoms

Education and admissions

Education

- News
 - CJEU confirms the limitations of MS' powers to regulate online services providers based in other MS

LL.M in International Business Regulation Litigation and Arbitration, New York University, 2015

Second year of Master's in Business Law and Taxation, University Panthéon-Assas Paris II, 2nd year of Master's in Business Law and Taxation, 2013

First year of Masters in Business Law, University Panthéon-Assas Paris II, 2012

Bachelor Degree in Private Law, University Panthéon-Assas Paris II, 2011

Bar admissions and qualifications

Paris
