

Virginia Montgomery

Senior Knowledge Lawyer
London

Biography

Virginia Montgomery is a senior knowledge lawyer in our Banking, Lending and Payments team, covering consumer finance, banking and payments regulation. She monitors legislative, case law and other legal and regulatory developments relevant to the team's practice for use both internally and with clients.

She also provides knowledge management solutions for the team and coordinates the provision of technical training for its fee-earners. Virginia moved into legal professional support in 2007, before which she was a banking and finance transactional lawyer.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - Implementing UK Consumer Duty: Prioritisation, delivering real change, and teamwork are key
- News
 - Global Payments Newsletter, January 2023
- News
 - UK government reviews Payment Services Regulations and Payment Card Interchange Fee Regulations
- News
 - Edinburgh Reforms – quick guide and timeline
- News
 - Global Payments Newsletter, December 2022
- News

Phone

+44 20 7296 2001

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

virginia.montgomery@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French
German

Practices

Commercial
Financial Services

Industries

Financial Institutions

Areas of focus

Consumer Finance
Product Compliance
Regular Contracts and Business

- UK government consults on future of consumer information requirements for payment accounts

Issues

Authorizations and Variations of Permission

Dealing with Financial Services Regulators

Payment Services

Regulated Outsourcing and Financial Institutions

Product Distribution and Financial Institutions

Banking Services

M&A, Business Transfers, and Restructuring in Financial Services

Education and admissions

Education

Postgraduate Diploma (Legal Practice), Oxford Institute of Legal Practice

Maîtrise en Droit, Université de Rennes 1

LL.B (European), University of Exeter, Hons

Memberships

Law Society of England and Wales
