

Virginia Montgomery

Senior Knowledge Lawyer

London

Biography

Virginia Montgomery is a senior knowledge lawyer in our Banking, Lending and Payments team, covering consumer finance, banking and payments regulation. She monitors legislative, case law and other legal and regulatory developments relevant to the team's practice for use both internally and with clients.

She also provides knowledge management solutions for the team and coordinates the provision of technical training for its fee-earners. Virginia moved into legal professional support in 2007, before which she was a banking and finance transactional lawyer.
