

Kelsey Moran

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Kelsey Moran advises clients on U.S. and international business transactions, with a focus on cross-border mergers and acquisitions and global corporate reorganizations.

Kelsey has represented clients in domestic and cross-border transactions involving industries as diverse as aerospace and defense; automotive; food, beverage, and agriculture; industrial manufacturing; life sciences and health care; and technology, media, and telecoms. Kelsey has experience coordinating and overseeing major projects, including working with local counsel in dozens of jurisdictions to solve complex legal issues.

Kelsey also recently was seconded to Ford Motor Company, working full-time for nearly a year as part of the Commercial and Transactions group in the Office of General Counsel. As an in-house lawyer, she worked closely with the Ford business team, advising on mergers and acquisitions, strategic investments and joint ventures.

In addition to her corporate work, Kelsey maintains an active pro bono practice before a variety of courts and government agencies. She is dedicated to representing homeless families, as well as women and children in refugee resettlement and other immigration proceedings. She also actively volunteers with local organizations supporting the success of women and children, including as a mentor with Casa Chirilagua.

While in law school, Kelsey served as Executive Notes
