

Neil Kurzon

Counsel
London

Biography

Neil Kurzon is a counsel in our London office.

Representative experience

Advising a major financial institution on the update of its structured securities programme.

Advising Morgan Stanley on issues from its warrant and certificate programme.

Advising Lehman Brothers and Deutsche Bank on fund repackagings.

Advising Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein on the £147m Avebury whole business securitisation.

Advising Fortis Bank N.V./S.A. on its €300m Pearl managed synthetic CDO transaction.

Advising numerous clients (including corporates and funds) on ISDA Master Agreements, repos and other hedging matters.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - The end is nigh (-bor): FCA consults on end to GBP LIBOR settings and need for synthetic USD LIBOR
- News
 - Securitisation 2020: U.K. Law and Practice

Phone

+44 20 7296 5743

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

neil.kurzon@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Education and admissions

Education

B.A. (Hons), Keble College, University of Oxford, 1996
