

Elisabetta Nunziante

Associate
Rome

Biography

Elisabetta is an associate in the SOAR and Technology, Media & Telecommunication team in Rome. She has joined the firm in 2017, back from a Master of Laws from King's College in IP and Information Law. Since then, Elisabetta has developed a deep knowledge of commercial law, including e-commerce, consumer protection and contractual law as well as privacy and cybersecurity, and telecommunication.

Elisabetta assists clients across different sectors and, particularly, she has advised, e-commerce players, health companies, telecommunication operators, Internet Service Providers, online travel platforms and entities in the public sector.

Thanks to her practical approach and deep understanding of law, Elisabetta provides clients with a 360-degree assistance, from drafting user agreements and privacy policies to advising clients in day-to-day legal questions on contractual law, consumer protection, regulatory and data protection issues.

Elisabetta graduated in Law from University Federico II of Naples, summa cum laude, with a final dissertation in IT law, and has subsequently obtained a LLM from King's College London where she has deepened her knowledge on data protection, e-commerce and information technology law. During her studies, she also took part several international programmes focussed on corporate and IT law, including a short course on Cyberlaw at the London School of Economics. Elisabetta is fluent in Italian and English.

Phone

+39 06 6758 2370

Fax

+39 06 67582323

Email

elisabetta.nunziante@hoganlovells.com

Languages

Italian
English

Practices

Commercial
Communications, Internet, and Media
IT Law
Privacy and Cybersecurity
Strategic Operations, Agreements and Regulation

Industries

Consumer
Life Sciences and Health Care

Representative experience

Continuative assistance to a multinational online travel platform in relation to contractual law, consumer protection law and travel package regulation

Advising a leading Italian company, providing business solutions and electronic invoicing software, on data protection impact assessments and GDPR compliance

Assisting several e-commerce platforms and other online companies in all aspects related to consumer protection law and platform to business regulation

Assisting a major international ISP on day to day issues of the services offered to Italian users, including hosting liability, privacy, consumer protection, and contentious matters

Assisting a major Italian company in the public sector on projects concerning the digitalization of public administration

Latest thinking and events

■ News

- Getting the Deal Through – Luxury and Fashion 2022

■ News

- Italy finally implements the new Do Not Call Register regulation

Technology and Telecoms

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M. in IP and Information law, King's College London, 2017

Law Degree, Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II, 2016

Bar admissions and qualifications

Italy
