

Oswaldo Chávez Uribe

Senior Associate

Mexico City

Biography

Oswaldo Chavez advises clients on labor matters, including review, preparation, recording, and registering of collective labor contracts, and reviewing grounds for termination of the employment relationship and preparing the respective notice.

Prior to joining Barrera Siqueiros y Torres Landa (now Hogan Lovells BSTL), he worked with another leading Mexican firm. He participated in the Seminar on International Labor Law taught by the Mexican Bar Association and is currently pursuing a Master of Constitutional Litigation at the Universidad Panamericana.

Representative experience

Advising on labor interpreting and implementing labor rights law.

Processing of individual actions brought by employees in labor law.

Revised procedures of collective bargaining agreements with labor authorities.

Responded to claims filed by workers demanding payment of indemnities.

Conducted negotiations to conclude labor lawsuits.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - New national guidelines for the continuity of

Phone

+52 55 5091 0233

Fax

+52 55 5091 0123

Email

oswaldo.chavez@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Spanish

Practices

Employment
Latin America Regional Practice

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., Universidad Panamericana, 2017

Law Degree, Universidad Nacional
Autónoma de México, 2004

economic activities due to COVID-19

- News
 - Minimum general wage in Mexico will increase in 2022
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Mexico | Health Emergency status by force majeure is declared due to COVID-19 and extraordinary measures are established
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - COVID-19 | Suspension of activities and its impact on the industrial activity in Mexico
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - COVID-19 Action Guide applicable for Work Establishments in Mexico
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Implications for employers in Mexico regarding the coronavirus