Biography

Dyah handles crisis and complex disputes in Indonesia like no other. She is keen, strategic and enthusiastic - always goes the extra mile for her clients.

Dyah is recognized by Chambers and Legal 500 in antitrust and competition practice. She co-leads the practice in Jakarta and is experienced in handling advisory, cartel investigation, merger control filing, business model consultation, risk assessment and mitigation, up to antitrust and competition litigation, and including matters related to the supervision of cooperation between a corporation and small-medium enterprises before Indonesia's Competition Authority (KPPU). She is experienced in assisting and advising clients on both the defence and reporting sides.

Dyah is also recognized by Legal 500 in dispute resolution practice. She is a Certified Mediator at the Supreme Court of the Republic Indonesia, a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCI Arb), and holds a Master of Laws degree in Comparative and International Dispute Resolution from the Centre of Commercial Law Studies, Queen Mary University of London. She was a Regional Representative for ICC Young Arbitrators Forum, South Asia, 2019-2021. Her approach in listening to understand, rather than to merely react and reply, has helped many clients avoid lengthy disputes and reach a mutually beneficial settlement. But when it comes to the real fight, she can
