

Eliza Parr

Associate

Paris

Biography

Eliza Parr is a lawyer in our IPMT Group and focuses her practice on online brand protection, in particular advising on the protection and recuperation of domain names and internet regulation across many jurisdictions.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Eliza trained at an international law firm in London and qualified into the intellectual property team, advising clients across the range of intellectual property rights.

Eliza holds a law degree from the University of Oxford and completed the Legal Practice Course at BPP University, London.

Eliza is a native English speaker and is fluent in French.

Latest thinking and events

- Published Works
 - UDRP: the pivotal role of substantial evidence
World Trademark Review
- Published Works
 - Legitimate use prevails in UDRP case
World Trademark Review
- Published Works
 - Good-faith acquisition poisons bad-faith argument
World Trademark Review
- Published Works
 - Prior business relationship prevents dispute from being actionable under UDRP
World Trademark

Phone

+33 1 53 67 18 09

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

eliza.parr@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Practices

Intellectual Property
Domain Names
IP Litigation, Arbitration, and Alternative Dispute Resolution
Trademarks and Brands
IT Law
Communications, Internet, and Media

Industries

Technology and Telecoms

Review

- Published Works
 - Ignoring well-established UDRP principles results in RDNH World Trademark Review
- Published Works
 - UDRP complaint falls at the first hurdle World Trademark Review

Education and admissions

Education

Legal Practice Course, BPP University, 2018

B.A. in Law (Jurisprudence), University of Oxford, 2017

Memberships

Franco-British Lawyers Society

Bar admissions and qualifications

Law Society of England and Wales

Paris, Foreign Legal Consultant
