Biography

Lina Perez focuses on complex debt finance transactions, including cross-border financing arrangements. She counsels private equity funds and corporate borrowers in a broad range of secured financing transactions. Her industry experience includes financial services, hospitality, manufacturing, media, real estate, retail and consumer products, and technology.

In addition to her finance work, Lina maintains an active pro bono practice. She routinely represents individuals in foster care adoptions and immigration proceedings.

During law school, she externed both in the Central District for the Honorable Judge R. Gary Klausner and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals for the Honorable Harry Pregerson. Lina also served as a summer honors intern at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and as the Managing Editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles International and Comparative Law Review.

Before joining Hogan Lovells as a summer associate, Lina obtained the Series 7 and 66 licenses and worked in private wealth management at UBS Financial Services.
